

The Farmington Model of Instruction

What will I do to ensure students interact with new knowledge?

- Makes connections to prior knowledge.
- Provide a preview activity that starts students thinking about the content they will encounter.
- Emphasize why content is relevant.
- Identify critical information for students to learn and organize the learning experience into small chunks.
- Use interactive instructional strategies to actively process small chunks of information.
- Use pre-planned collaborative groups to enrich interaction of knowledge.
